

Any idea
where the loos are?

You
can
just say 'hello'

Do you
mind if I stand
here?

Do you
know where
I can grab
a cuppa?

If you think someone needs help, just start a simple conversation.

You might worry you'll say the wrong thing, but saying something is better than nothing. Trust your instincts – you could save a life.

You can also find a member of staff or police officer. In an emergency, call 999.
